The landmark book that brought to light the truth about rape--that it occurs most often between people who know each other. Examines the social causes and legal approaches to acquaintance rape, with guidance for changes that have resulted in this book's frequent adoption for coursework, public health training and more.

I Never Called it Rape: The Ms. Report on Recognizing

In "I Never Called It Rape," I acquired information that led me to re-evaluate my opinion of rape. This book gives an insightful glimpse into one of the most common forms of rape: date rape. It was an intriguing, fascinating, and somehow saddening piece of literature. I would highly recommend this nonfiction book!
